

Town of Lillington Criminally Enforced Ordinances

TOWN OF LILLINGTON CODE OF ORDINANCES

CHAPTER	NAME	PROHIBITED CONDUCT	PENALTY
93	Nuisances	Prohibits conditions on lots or parcels of land such as excessive vegetative growth, waste, junk or stagnant water which are or may be dangerous or prejudicial to the public health; offensive business including tan yard, slaughterhouse or slaughter pen, in city limits.	Any person, firm or corporation violating any provision of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, may be punished by a fine not to exceed $50 or imprisoned not to exceed 30 days. Each day such violation continues shall constitute a separate offense
111	Alcoholic Beverages	Prohibits on or off premises sale of beer and wine without first procuring a license from the Town Board. License must be renewed annually.	(A) Criminal remedies. Conducting business within this town without having paid the license fees imposed by this chapter, or without a valid license issued in accordance with this chapter, is a misdemeanor, punishable as provided in G.S. § 105-109. Each day that a person conducts business in violation of this chapter is a separate offense. Payment of a fine imposed in criminal proceedings in accordance with this section does not relieve a person of the liability for license fee imposed under this chapter. (B) Equitable remedies. In addition to the criminal remedies set forth in division (A) of this section and in compliance with G.S. § 160A-175(d), the town may seek and injunction against any person who conducts a business in violation of this chapter.
131	Offenses Against Public Peace and Safety	Prohibits air rifles; throwing explosives; assembly or persons blocking street or sidewalk; under age consumption of alcoholic beverages on streets, sidewalks, other public property; consumption and serving of alcoholic beverages inside the Lillington Community Center; smoking in municipal buildings; and begging, panhandling or soliciting contributions.	(A) If any person shall violate any provision of this chapter for which no other penalty is provided, he or she shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than $50, or imprisoned for not more than 30 days. (B) If any person shall violate any provision of § 131.03 he or she shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than $50, or imprisoned for not more than 30 days. (C) If any person shall violate any provision of § 131.05 he or she shall be fined not more than $50. Conviction of an infraction under this section has no consequence other than payment of a penalty and may not be assessed court costs and shall not be punishable as a misdemeanor. Employees of the town who violate any provision of § 131.05 shall be subject to disciplinary action consistent with the town's personnel policy. (D) Violation of § 131.06 shall constitute a Class 3 misdemeanor and shall subject the violator to a fine of not more than $50 or imprisonment for not more than 30 days.
134	Youth Protection	Establishes curfew for youth under age 18 and prohibits being out between 11 p.m. and 7 a.m.; being out when suspended from school between 7:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m.; parent or guardian knowingly allowing the youth to violate the curfew; owner, operator or employee an establishment knowingly allowing to remain on the premises during the curfew; any person 18 years or older aiding or abetting a youth in violating the curfew; and parent or guarding of a youth refusing to take custody of the youth during the restricted hours.	(A) A youth who violates any provision of this chapter is subject to being adjudicated delinquent. The court may, in its discretion, impose any dispositional alternative(s) that are provided in the state youth code for any youth who is delinquent. (B) Any person other than a youth who violates any provision of this section may be guilty of a misdemeanor and may be subject to a fine not to exceed $100 for the first offense, and for each subsequent offense the fine shall be increased by an additional $150. For example, for the second offense the fine shall be $250, for the third offense, $400, and imprisonment in the discretion of the court in accordance with G.S. § 14-4.
